Sound Artist, Composer, CJ

Ukraine

About me ...

“Hi! I’m UKRAINIAN”

My name is Yulia Nevzorova.

My nickname is ETAMMT.

I’m a composer of digital electronic intellectual music.

I was born in Estonia.

“I started writing music and working with sound after deciding to stay at home following the birth of my youngest son.

It was during my long walks that I began to hear the surrounding sounds differently.”

"It took me some time to get used to the richness of the sound around me.

around and inside me.

My life has changed completely."

"I was also interested in the existing information about the nature of sound, as well as the new evolutionary opportunities for creating new sound."

I studied vocal, went to Solfeggio and studied the theory of psychoacoustics.

I began to masterwork and composing in DAW (Digital Audio Workstation) .

I wrote over 50+- lyrics and about 70+- music acks."

Sound is...

the Foundation of everything

Silence

Energy

Infinity

I exist

I feel

I see the world

I interact with others

through sounds...

I also decided to take courses on the basics of music production technology at Berklee College.

In 2019, three of my music albums were released:

- “Synthetic Nirvana”;
- “Passage Room”;
- “Atavisms of AI” (vol.1 and vol.2)

My first music albums

Music Album “Synthetic Nirvana”

This album has conflicting storylines in sound.

Each track in it is a separate story about the frequent discrepancies of our ideas ... about the phenomena and their true nature.

Music Album “Passage Room”

This album is written in the Spoken Word genre about states of consciousness recursion.

The texts of the poems are written in Russian.

ПРОХОДНАЯ
КОМНАТА

Through sound, I pose questions about possible atavisms in the mental development of people.

Each track is an emotional reaction to a question about a specific idea, which I reflect on ...
